The Reflection of the Chicago Fire in Wall Street.

A Victory for the Bull Side in Stocks.

GENERALLY DULL MARKETS.

The most interesting development of to-day's was the sharp reverse which the bear arty suffered in the quick return which stocks ed after the first reports of the Chicago fire and been contradicted. The "bears" were early on hand, evidently having read the morning pa-pers, and made a brilliant sally upon values in the first hour, especially directed against Western situation as contrasted with the midnight rerailed the 'bulls" with a spirit they have

GRAIN DELIVERY.

A discussion of the new code of rules proposed for regulating the receipt, delivery and grading of grain arriving at this port was had yesterday at the Produce Exchange. Many of the leading dealers were present, Mr. L. F. Holman occupying the chair. There seems to be a general acquiescence in the propriety of the new rules, with, perhaps, a the propriety of the new rules, with, perhaps, a few minor modifications. Many of the merchants believe that their adoption would materially reduce the charges on grain received here, and in that way prove a most salutary stimulant to this important trade, counteracting the strenuous exertions making on behalf of other seaboard cities to divert from our wharves the cereals of the great West which eventually go across the Atlantic for consumption.
